

Child & Family Teaming

What is the Child & Family Team?

The Child and Family Team is a group of people you choose that meet regularly and work together to support you.

Your Wraparound Facilitator/Care Coordinator will support you in identifying the important people in your life and inviting them to join the Child and Family Team.

What is the purpose of the Child & Family Team?

The purpose of the Child and Family Team is to bring together the important people in your life in order to share their unique perspective. The Child and Family Team provides a time and place for everyone to meet as one team to provide support to your family.

Who is included in the Child & Family Team?

The Child and Family Team can include professionals who make you feel supported, like your Care Coordinator, therapist, school staff, or others you choose. In addition, the team can include other supports in your life, such as family members, friends, coaches, church members, or a neighbor.

Your team will include a combination of:

- Family Members
- Formal Supports (such as a therapist, probation officer, teacher)
- Informal Supports (such as an aunt, grandparent, coach, pastor)

Your Care Coordinator/Facilitator can answer any questions about building your Child & Family Team and how the team can help your family meet the goals you have created.
