WebEx Tips to Join the Virtual Meeting:

- We strongly suggest using the WebEx link to attend the meeting. This will enable you to have full functionality and capabilities of the virtual platform during the meeting.
- You may use your computer's audio or the phone option for sound; in our experience the "Call me" option has the best sound quality.
- If you are calling-in and not using the WebEx link, please email Kyle.Daniels@illinois.gov
- Please use the following subject line in your email:
 - Request for Attendee Support Dec 21st, 2021 HE&Q.
 - You will then receive any last-minute meeting materials if applicable.
- Individuals participating through WebEx may use the "chat" function to communicate with the meeting host and/or co-host.

To Provide Public Comments, You Must Register in Advance As follows:

To speak during the meeting, interested parties must email Kyle.Daniels@illinois.gov and cc Dawn.R.Wells@Illinois.gov & Melishia.Bansa@illinois.gov by no later than 5:00pm on Friday, Dec 17th, 2021.

- Please title your email correspondence with the following statement in the subject line:
Request to Provide HE&Q Public Comment on Dec 21st, 2021.
- When signing up to provide public comment, all public speakers must provide their name, title, organization's name, email address, contact number, and topic of public comment.
 - Additionally, interested parties may also submit written comments by email. Submitted comments will be read into the record by the chair or a person appointed by the chair.

The Department will try to accommodate as many requests as possible, however there is limited availability for public comments. At the Department's discretion and based upon the public comment time allotted, each speaker will be limited to 1-3 minutes. Speakers on the same subject are encouraged to collaborate and have a single spokesperson, if possible.
